Transition and Staffing 2020-21

Parents were informed about staffing on Monday this week. We hope your children enjoyed watching the videos we uploaded to Google Classroom. We know you will appreciate that transition has been rather tricky this year and would appreciate any feedback you have on the process this year.

Presents

A few parents have asked us about giving their class teacher an end of year gift. If you would like to do this, please could we ask you to deliver them to the main hall, clearly labelled between 9.15am and 1.45pm on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday or Friday.

Please note, there is absolutely no expectation that parents should do this.

Sending Hugs and Smiles

A big thank you to all children that sent in letters and pictures to the residents of Margaret House. Your efforts were much appreciated, and made a big difference to those that received them. Please see the link below:

PE – Home Sports Day

No sports day? Well, we couldn't go without having a sports day of some description! Tanners Wood will have a 'Home Sports Day' this year on Wednesday 15th July.

You will receive a Youth Sports Trust PowerPoint with fun activities to complete at home. This will be with minimal equipment and you can compete within your family or against another family! It's up to you.

If you are in the Key Worker groups, you will have activities that you can complete in your bubbles. How many points can your team score? There is a record sheet to record all your scores and you can bring it in September to show your new teacher, Mr Roonan and myself.

I hope you enjoy the activities and most importantly, have fun!

Graffiti dashes down the street,
running quickly, under peoples feet,
It's all over the flat walls, even more on the floor,
Graffiti is everywhere, bright colours galore.
It's all so beautiful, more colour than a flower,
It makes you feel happy, like you have superpowers
Some people want more, some people want less,
Some people think it's a big, brilliant mess,
Police don't like it,
Cities don't like it,
All of the graffiti, it's talking to you,
because all the artists want to be listened to.

Year 6 English by Gracie

In a small town with few people, I sat at my desk hoping for something to brighten up my day. My machine came alive, I jumped out my seat with excitement. All of a sudden I noticed a problem had occurred. Panic began to run through me, as my machine started to shout at me! I didn't know what to do! Suddenly I remembered that my emergency box was just behind me. I felt like a weight has been lifted off my shoulder.
Heading into a small town I looked around for my wish makers grant some wishes. Looking around in my emergency box I began to throw in a dandelion flower and someone made a wish. Opening my red box I found a shooting star. Picking it up I flew into the dark sky. All of a was bright yellow dust as shiny as the sun was shooting out from the stars. Falling from the night sky onto the hard floor and I found that all the tools had vanished. Defeated and out of options a tall man who was carrying sacks of money suddenly dropped a coin into my box. Grabbing the coin I sprinted to the fountain and threw my coin in with all my might. Instantly, pink dust flew gracefully out of the fountain, as I watched them come together.
