Message from Mrs Qureshi

We have had a very successful first week back to school! Remote learning has been completed to a high standard, and those children who are attending school have adapted well. Once again, children and staff have shown resilience in these challenging times. Thank you to all parents for your support.

Year 6 Roles

Yesterday, the nominated children presented their speeches to me via Google Meet. I was very impressed by their well-written speeches and how confident and articulate their presentations were.

The following children were successful in achieving these roles:

Head Girl: Lilly H - Willow

Head Boy: Adam R - Spruce

Deputy Head Girl: Ruby B - Spruce

Deputy Head Boy: Otto W - Willow

School Ambassador: Cody B - Spruce

School Ambassador: Scarlett B - Willow

Poem by Josh – Elm

The tigeey likes to swing in trees,
and jumps on it's bouncy knees.
It likes to go ooh ooh roay!
and plays around on the shore.
Tigeey lives in a treegle,
and glies around like a eagle.
Tigeey es likes to eat a juicy linc
while slobbering some snatty slime.

WW2 Poem by Ciara – Spruce

People search grimly through the rubble,
Young and old, they all see the trouble.
Through the broken glass and shattered homes,
Such sadness reflected in this warzone.
What used to be a lovely city,
Is now destroyed and full of pity.
Children sit on broken bricks,
As they watch the adults pick,
Blindly, through chaos and confusion.
Buildings become coffins, a morbid illusion,
Lost souls cannot believe these events,
Or from what world this hell was sent.
'Where do we start?', all wonder aloud,
As the chaos shrinks into the crowd.
